KEAN UNIVERSITY
Student Party and Special Events
Policy and Procedures

In order to provide adequate notice to the University administration and the Department of Public Safety and Campus Police, the following documents must be submitted to the Events Board by way of each organizations/departments respective representative:

- Student Government and Funded Groups – Director of the Office of Student Organization of Kean University
- Greek Organizations – Assistant Director of the Office of Student Life & Leadership Development
- Non-Funded Groups – Associate Director of the Office of Student Life & Leadership Development
- Conferences and Special Events – the TMPO/Conference and Events Coordinator

Failure to submit paperwork will result in the cancellation of the event. Please be aware that the Events Board meets every week on Tuesday. Please complete the following forms:

1. Room Reservation & Public Safety Application with the advisor’s signature;
2. Box Office Requisition Form (Tickets may go on sale as soon as the event has been approved and confirmed by the Events Board. All tickets must be sold from the Kean University Box Office and University Center. The Wilkins Theatre Box Office will remain open until 11:15 PM on the night of the event, unless it has previously sold out. Tickets cannot be sold at the door. Only students with a valid Kean University ID are allowed to purchase up to two (2) tickets)
3. Kean University Security Agreement for band(s), entertainer(s), speaker(s) and/or DJ(s) hired by the student group(s). A biography, press release, and/or list of past performances must be attached. Only designated full-time employees of the University may sign the Kean Security Agreement.

The deadline for submission of the Security Agreement is:
- Two (2) weeks prior to the scheduled event for an Internal band(s), entertainer(s), speaker(s), and/or DJ(s)
- Four (4) weeks to the scheduled event for External band(s), entertainer(s), speaker(s), and/or DJ(s)
4. Media Request Form from Academic Technology and a Food Waiver Form from Gourmet Dining, if applicable; and an Audio/Video Release Form if event requires audio or videotaping.

Please note that all events will be considered pending until all information is received on time.

FEES:

1. Security Fee: $17.50 per hour per officer assigned. The average staffing for an event is ten (10) officers.
2. Box Office Fee: $35.00.
3. Maintenance Fee: $21 per hour per person assigned.

All fees are due Fourteen (14) days prior to the event. Checks should be made payable to Kean University, unless other arrangements have been made. If other arrangements are made and there is a failure to pay the fee within the agreed upon time, it will result in the cancellation of subsequent events and scheduling privileges by the sponsoring organization/s until such time the fee has been paid.

All fees are subject to change. Groups will be notified of any changes in a timely manner.

Please note that if a student group must cancel an event, a Cancellation Form must be completed and submitted at least two (2) business days prior to the event to the TMPO/Conference & Events office. If the form is not submitted on time, the group will be responsible for all costs and fees. If the student group does not pay incurred fees and costs, the group will lose scheduling privileges.

DAMAGES:
The sponsoring organization will be billed for any damages resulting from an event within Thirty (30) days. Failure to pay the fee within the agreed upon time will result in the cancellation of subsequent events and scheduling privileges by the sponsoring organization/s until such time the fee has been paid. The assessment will be determined by the cost of repairs.

Be aware that the University shall not be responsible for the reimbursement of fees to an organization(s), band(s), entertainer(s), speaker(s), DJ(s) or promoter(s) if an event is cancelled for violations of this policy, any University procedure, or work requests associated with the event.

REQUIRED MEETINGS:

An organization sponsoring a special event or party is required to schedule and attend two (2) organizational meetings with the Coordinator of Student Programs, or designee, prior to the event to go over the expectations, roles and responsibilities of the host organization. It is the organization’s responsibility to ensure all paperwork has been properly submitted and processed.

- The first meeting will be scheduled two (2) to four (4) weeks prior the event.
- The second meeting is to take place one week prior to the event with the advisor present.

Additional meetings with staff in the Office of Student Life and Leadership Development, Campus Police, the organization, and advisor/s will be scheduled as needed.

Attendance is mandatory prior to the scheduled event. Failure to attend the meeting will result in the cancellation of that event.

ORGANIZATION RESPONSIBILITIES:

Sponsoring organizations must complete the following:

7. The Chief or a Lieutenant will attend parties as needed

ROLE OF ATTENDING STUDENTS

1. Only Kean University students may purchase tickets for parties.
2. Kean students must present their valid Kean University student ID for admission.
3. Guests must have a valid photo ID (such as driver’s license) for admission.
4. Students/guests must provide campus police officers with a valid photo ID upon request.
5. Students must arrive with their guests and sign in. As part of the sign-in process, guests must provide valid photo ID upon admission.
6. Students, inside the party, cannot hold onto tickets while waiting for friends to come to the event.
7. No loitering will be permitted in the area surrounding Downs Hall.

ROLE OF SPONSORING ORGANIZATION
The sponsoring organization must take ownership of their events. Representatives from the sponsoring organization may be asked to assist with specific duties that will be established during the planning meeting with the Coordinator of Student Programs, or designee. Duties may include:

a. Monitoring the table and distributing tickets to attendees who come to the party later than their host who is working the event.
b. Distributing giveaways purchased by the sponsoring group.
c. Walking around inside party to make sure attendees are following party rules.
d. Make opening and ending announcements to attendees concerning University expectations.
e. If water or any other beverage is going to be distributed at a party, the sponsoring student groups should be responsible for handing out beverages.
f. Hosts will have no physical contact with any disruptive attendees; hosts are expected to report incidents to Campus Police and the Coordinator of Student Programs.
g. At 11:30 p.m., when the doors are closed, the host students can then participate as attendees at the party, but one student is responsible for making the ending announcement, informing students that the party will end shortly. All participants must vacate the building and surrounding area immediately after the ending announcement is made.

COMPLIMENTARY TICKETS/PERFORMERS’ ENTRANCE
The sponsoring organization should make every effort to distribute complimentary tickets prior to the event. Distribution of tickets at Downs Hall for parties will not be allowed. In the event of cultural events that include participation by performers, a special performers’ entrance will be set up for performers only. The sponsoring organization must submit a list of performers to the Coordinator of Student Programs, or designee, one week prior to the event. The list may not be changed after 12 p.m. on the day of the event. All performers will be required to follow same entrance procedures as attendees, but through a special entrance. The list of performers will be available at the performers’ entrance for check-in and the corresponding tickets must be provided by the sponsoring organization to the Coordinator of Student Programs, or designee, by 12 p.m. on the day of the event. No one will be allowed to enter the event without a corresponding ticket for each person on the performers list.

The use of a performers’ entrance must be requested by the sponsoring organization and approved by the Events Board. The sponsoring organization may only request up to fifty (50) complimentary tickets unless otherwise authorized by the Events Board. Requests for complimentary tickets must include a tentative distribution list.

ROLE OF THE EVENT STAFF
The Events Staff consists of professional and student employees from the Office of Student Life and Leadership Development and student employees from the University Center Administration. The professional staff members from the Student Life and Leadership Development Office are responsible for the supervision of the special events staff members. Duties include:

a. Working closely with Campus Police and the professional staff of the Office of Student Life and Leadership Development.
b. Posting informational signs throughout Downs Hall.
c. Collecting tickets.
d. Distributing wristbands.
e. Checking wristbands.
f. Guarding all entrances.
g. Walking around inside the party to assure that attendees are following party rules.
h. Special Events Staff will have no physical contact with any disruptive attendees.
i. Events staff members are expected to report incidents to Campus Police and the Coordinator of Student Programs.
j. At 12:45 a.m., when the event is over, the Special Events Staff, under the direction of the Coordinator of Student Programs, or designee, is to assist the host organization and Campus Police in directing attendees to the closest exit.

By signing this policy, the representative of the sponsoring organization acknowledges that the Coordinator of Student Programs, or designee, has met with the group and has reviewed the provisions of the policy. The sponsoring organization agrees to abide by the regulations detailed in the policy, understanding that group(s)/individual(s) found in violation of the Student Code of Conduct and this policy may have their programming privileges suspended.
