

MINOR in...

Sustainability Science

- 15-18 credits
- Open to all undergraduate students at Kean University
- Consists of an interdisciplinary set of course offerings

- Learn basics, principles, and tools in Sustainability Science
- Explore the challenges of sustainable development in various industries and business at local and global scales
- Be aware of environmental policies and laws
- Comprehend various technologies for sustainability
- Learn how to develop sustainable buildings, products, business and communities
- Be prepared to obtain professional certificates in various sustainability career areas

For inquiries contact:

Dongyan Mu

George Hennings Hall (Science Building) C-321

908-737-3689, dmu@kean.edu