

GENERAL EDUCATION LEARNING COMMUNITY

SUSTAINABILITY COHORT G: ALL MAJORS

Your actions have power! As a part of this cohort, you will investigate the intersection between humans and the natural world through the lens of sustainability. If you are exploring majors (which is great!), you will be exposed to a wide variety of fields through the three interconnected courses:

GE PILOT PROGRAM

GE07
DATE & TIME: M
9:30-12:15 PM
INSTRUCTOR:
LAURA BAECHER

ENG 1030: COLLEGE COMPOSITION

Introduction to College Composition (ENG 1030) gives you strong writing skills that will take you from narrative to research writing as well as developing digital storytelling, infographic design, and portfolio creation.

GE07
DATE & TIME: TH
9:30-12:15 PM
INSTRUCTOR:
KAREN
WOODRUFF

SUST 1000: INTRO TO SUSTAINABILITY SCI

Introduction to Sustainability (SUST 1000) takes an action-oriented approach to understanding our civic responsibility to engage in society by understanding the key areas that matter to our planetary health.

GE07
DATE & TIME: M/TH
2:00-3:15 PM
INSTRUCTOR:
SHARMISTHA
DAS-IYER

GE 1855: FIRST YEAR SEMINAR

First Year Seminar (GE 1855) will explore themes of Bioethics, Social Justice and Sustainable Research using the Anchor Text: Immortal Life of Henrietta Lacks and take you to your own communities to collect public health data.

PETITIONS FOR COURSES:
GE LEARNING COMMUNITY STUDENTS IN ALL MAJORS: SUSTAINABILITY THEME