

WEEK OF INVOLVEMENT

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 3, THROUGH SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2020

Kean University recognizes more than 170 student groups and organization across its three campuses. Each of these organizations has a unique mission and purpose and contributes differently to the campus community. During the past academic year, these organizations collectively hosted more than 1,000 student events, programs and meetings and Kean students performed more than 60,000 hours of community service to make the world around them a better place. There are many reasons to get involved — learn new things, build your resume, expand your network, gain experience, meet new friends, have fun, etc... — whatever your reason is, there is something for you at Kean!

Here is just a sampling of what you can find at Kean University! You can also learn about these events and more in Cougar Link, Kean University's online involvement network, at <http://kean.campuslabs.com/engage>
