

GENERAL EDUCATION LEARNING COMMUNITY

SUSTAINABILITY COHORT F

Creating a world that humans and non-humans can live in will require us to understand and communicate the complexity of people and their environments. This cohort's theme of "sustainability" will anchor student's exploration of two interconnected courses.

GE PILOT PROGRAM

GE06
DATE & TIME: M/W
9:30-10:45 AM
INSTRUCTOR:
DENA ARGUELLES

ENG 2403: WORLD LITERATURE

Students will be introduced to readings from ancient time to the present. This course emphasizes cultural diversity, selected themes, and literary genres. Students will develop aesthetic and ethical values as well as critical thinking, reading, and writing skills.

GE06
DATE & TIME: TH
9:30-12:15 PM
INSTRUCTOR:
KAREN WOODRUFF

SUST 1000: INTRO TO SUSTAINABILITY SCIENCE

Introduction to Sustainability (SUST 1000) takes an action-oriented approach to understanding our civic responsibility to engage in society by understanding the key areas that matter to our planetary health.

PETITIONS FOR COURSES:
GE06 LEARNING COMMUNITY COHORT