

DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE
UNITED STATES CYBER COMMAND

9800 Savage Road, Suite 6477
Fort George G. Meade, Maryland 20755-6477

USCYBERCOM J5

29 February 2024

Dr. Stanley Mierzwa
Kean University
1000 Morris Ave.
Union, NJ 07083

Dear Dr. Mierzwa,

This letter is to inform you that the United States Cyber Command (USCYBERCOM) officially welcomes Kean University to the Academic Engagement Network (AEN). The AEN seeks to foster relationships between innovative academic institutions and the USCYBERCOM enterprise, which includes USCYBERCOM Headquarters, Cyber National Mission Force (CNMF), Joint Force Headquarters-Department of Defense Information Networks (JFHQ-DODIN), Air Force Cyber Command (AFCYBER), Army Cyber Command (ARCYBER), Coast Guard Cyber Command (CGCYBER), Fleet Cyber Command (FCC), Marine Forces Cyber Command (MARFORCYBER) and their associated Reserve Cyber forces.

As a collaborative network, we have four primary goals:

1. Engage the Future Workforce
2. Increase Cyber Applied Research and Innovation
3. Expand Cyber-Focused Analytic Partnerships
4. Enrich Strategic Dialogue on Cyber

We are excited to work with your institution, which has been approved for membership into the USCYBERCOM AEN.

Respectfully

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "R. Rodriguez-Medellin", is positioned above the printed name.

RAUL RODRIGUEZ-MEDELLIN
Colonel, IN
Director of Academic Engagements